TEENS AND CHILDREN GRIEF SUPPORT CAMP

WHERE CHILDREN LEARN TO GRIEVE & HEAL

SEPTEMBER 23, 24 and 25, 2016

From a teens heart ...

"This weekend helped me express myself. I had a good time meeting new friends and sharing our thoughts. It reminded me that I'm not alone and should never feel alone."

- Evan, age 15

"Camp Erin helped me with expressing my feelings and it helped me with my grieving. I always felt safe. And there were kids that went through what I was going through."

- Maria, age 12

TEENS AND CHILDREN GRIEF SUPPORT CAMP

SEPTEMBER 23, 24 and 25, 2016

Camp Erin® is a weekend camp offered at no charge for children and teens ages 6-17 who have experienced the death of someone close to them. Camp Erin combines traditional, fun, camp activities with grief education and emotional support—facilitated by grief professionals and trained volunteers.

"Camp Erin helped me with expressing my feelings and it helped me with my grieving. I always felt safe. And there were kids that went through what I was going through." - Maria, age 12

CAMP ERIN REGISTRATION

For additional information on attending Camp Erin, please contact: fmn@hospiceofanchorage.org or 561-5322. A camp registration packet will be sent to you. Packets are also available online at www.hospiceofanchorage.org. Please submit the completed registration form as soon as possible, as camp space is limited and there could be a waiting list. Once we receive your application we will contact you to set up your required pre-camp interview. Children from military families are invited and encouraged to apply.

The Forget Me Not Grief Program is proud to offer Camp Erin in partnership with The Moyer Foundation.

The Moyer Foundation partners with healthcare and bereavement organizations in local communities to help fund, manage, and grow Camp Erin nationwide.
