Spring volunteering in full effect

Breckenridge Rotary Club Helps Construct Breckenridge Skateboard Park

Bright and early on Saturday morning of March 18th, members of the Rotary Club of Breckenridge, City staff, community volunteers, and young skateboarders anxious to complete the park, showed up to begin laying re-bar in the foundation of the new Breckenridge Skateboard Park. Rotarians have supported the effort with funding as well as labor as the Breckenridge Rotary Club and the Rotary Foundation have contributed $4,000 to the park.

Fund raising is still under way. Anyone interested in contributing to the park effort can call 254-559-8287 and ask for Felicia or they can make contributions to the Breckenridge Improvement Council – Skateboard Park and drop at City Offices, 105 N. Rose, Breckenridge, Texas 76424.

Buckaroos put in work to refurbish concession stand at ballpark collapsed the smell of nachos collapsed too.

A new roof was donated for the concession stand by the parents of the 2017 Buckaroos and several varsity players spent multiple hours after practice a couple of days last week to scrape, scrub, power-wash, sweep and paint to completely refurbish the building.

After that the players also helped stock the concession to have it ready for the Buckaroos next home game.

The next time you look to the North side of town and you see those big bright ballpark lights, stop by to support our Bucks and grab a hot-dog or snow cone.

Baseball is a lifestyle, a lifestyle that includes nachos, hot dogs, snowcones, candy and pickles. Every fan loves concession stand food and knows it's part of the ballpark experience. The Bucks concession stand that is located to the North of home plate has been in need of a face lift for quite some-time, but when the roof
