☒ Progress Report ☐ Final Report

1. Briefly describe the project. What was done, when and where did project activities take place, and who were the beneficiaries?
The Orange Senior Center provides meals and programming for 125 participants daily. The existing tables were worn out and constituted a safety hazard for the seniors. This grant provided new tables for these activities. The beneficiaries were the Orange seniors and the staff at the center.
2. How many Rotarians participated in the project?
Four
3. What did they do? Please give at least two examples.
Bill Utter prepared the grant proposal and Katherine Connahan arranged for the purchase and set-up of the tables.
4. How many non-Rotarians benefited from this project?
A daily average of 125 Center participants
5. What are the expected long-term community impacts of the project?
The center is independently operated and relies on community support to provide the meals and programs for the senior community of Orange and surrounding areas. This grant provides a safe environment for these activities.
6. If a cooperating organization was involved, what was its role?
The Orange Senior Center coordinated the purchase and set-up of the tables
