Rotary Club: Norwalk / Santa Fe Springs

Project Title: Backpacks For Students 2024

☐ Progress Report ☒ Final Report

1. Briefly describe the project. What was done, when and where did project activities take place, and who were the beneficiaries?
Our members distributed 142 backpacks loaded with supplies to low-income elementary school students in Santa Fe Springs at an event at the Gus Velasco Neighborhood Center in August.

2. How many Rotarians participated in the project? Entire club of 14 members

3. What did they do? Please give at least two examples.

Our member met one day to fill the backpacks, and another day a couple of weeks later to distribute to students at the event.

4. How many non-Rotarians benefited from this project? 142 students and their families

5. What are the expected long-term community impacts of the project?

Facilitating the education of local students by providing school supplies they couldn't otherwise afford, and the event kicked-off the school year with motivation and encouragement.

6. If a cooperating organization was involved, what was its role? City of Santa Fe Springs provided the location, tables and other activities for the students and their families.
