Project Description

1. Briefly describe the project outcomes. What was done (in 100 words or less)? Child drownings occur far too often in our area due to the large number of home swimming pools. The Josh the Otter Water Safety Program teaches young children the importance of water safety and how to safely be around water. Funds were used to purchase the educational materials for the program and Rotarians went to schools in the North Valley and conducted interactive sessions with classrooms of young kindergartners and elementary schoolers to teach about water safety.

When (dates) and where (city, state and country) did project activities take place? In the spring semester, students at 9 different Pre-K and elementary school in the North Valley area of Phoenix.
