Project Title: Got Your Back

☐ Progress Report ☒ Final Report

1. Briefly describe the project. What was done, when and where did project activities take place, and who were the beneficiaries?

We paid for groceries purchased on our behalf to provide weekend nourishment for homeless children in San Diego County. We then spent Saturday, April 2nd morning stocking the shelves and organizing food in the warehouse so that the backpacks could be stuffed properly by other volunteers.

2. How many Rotarians participated in the project? 9

3. What did they do? Please give at least two examples.

As a group we met at the warehouse and broke open cartons of food products and individually placed them by category on the shelves. One member had to weigh the food we placed on the shelves, several members broke open the cartons and pulled out the individual items to place on the shelves, and several members moved the items on the shelves so they were placed in an orderly fashion to facilitate stuffing of the backpacks by other volunteers.

4. How many non-Rotarians benefited from this project?

It is estimated our funding would feed 11 children every weekend for an entire school year. Another way to look at it is that we could feed 100 children each weekend for one month.

5. What are the expected long-term community impacts of the project?

Food insecurity has been associated with a number of childhood chronic health problems, behavioral challenges and social difficulties. Poorly fed kids are at greater risk of truancy, tardiness, lethargy and are more likely to experience mood swings, aggression, hyperactivity and an inability to engage in academic and social activities. Hungry, homeless children are more vulnerable to predatory criminals. Statistics show that 1 in 4 homeless kids are likely to end up involved with drugs, alcohol, gangs or dragged into the human trafficking trade.

6. If a cooperating organization was involved, what was its role?

We've Got Your Back San Diego organized the food purchase and the stocking of the shelves with food items.
