Dear Summer

I am delighted to inform you that the University is offering you admission to PhD Health in Social Science - 3 Years (PRPHDHEASS1F) under the Terms and Conditions below. Please read this offer and the specific terms carefully and complete the instructions as necessary.

This offer is governed by the University's admissions terms and conditions: <https://www.ed.ac.uk/studying/admissions/terms-conditions>.

You will find information relating to your offer and your right to cancel (should you choose to accept it and then change your mind), as well as information such as how to pay your tuition fees, how to find out about any other charges you may incur as a student, and what you should do if you have a complaint.

If you decide to accept our offer, you will also be accepting our admissions terms and conditions, as well as the other University regulations that form part of the student contract: <https://www.ed.ac.uk/students/academic-life/contract>

Your offer is CONDITIONAL on you meeting the requirements as detailed. Please submit the requested documentation as soon as you have it. The response deadline shown below is not the deadline for submitting these documents and meeting the conditions of your offer; that deadline is for you to accept or decline this offer. If you choose to accept this offer then once you have met the conditions, we will be able to send you an unconditional offer of admission..

Conditions to be met:

Obtain 2:1 Honours degree. Plus provision of one satisfactory reference.

You must accept or decline this offer by 20/01/2025, as competition for places at the University of Edinburgh is very high. Please note, by accepting an offer, you are not committing yourself to study at the University. Accepting your offer helps with our admission process and may help you in applying for funding, accommodation or a student visa (if required). If you later decide not to study at the University, you can withdraw your acceptance at any time. We would encourage you to accept your offer as soon as possible.

Proposed research proposal*:

* Please note that the proposed area of research may change over time. Consequently what is set out above is not a contractual commitment to working in this particular area of research.

If you have been charged with an offence or you have an unspent criminal conviction, we would strongly encourage you to talk to us about the support we can offer when you come to the University. If you are on licence or have conditions related to a conviction, we can work with you to minimise any impact on the degree programme you intend to study. Please note all students will be asked to disclose unspent criminal convictions and pending charges at matriculation. More information and contact details are available on our website: <https://www.ed.ac.uk/studying/admissions/convictions>

Yours sincerely

Professor Matthias Schwannauer

Monitoring and academic progress

Please note that if you fail to make adequate academic progress, the University reserves the right either to transfer you to a lower degree or to discontinue your studies.

Funding and Living Costs

This offer of admission is made on the understanding that you will be responsible for securing funding to cover all your fees and living expenses. Living expenses are in addition to tuition fees and additional programme costs and estimated costs are given on the following website: <https://www.ed.ac.uk/studying/international/finances>

Fees

Fees are quoted on the assumption that the start date, mode of study and tuition fee status information shown above is correct. The estimated tuition fee quoted above is the rate for the first year of your programme of study. If you have applied for a programme of study of more than one year, you should be aware that the tuition fees increase every year. However - international students studying full time on undergraduate and postgraduate taught programmes lasting more than one year will have their fee level fixed for the duration of their studies.

The estimated annual fee quoted is the total tuition fee amount that will be payable by either yourself or your sponsor in year 1 of study, prior to the deduction of any deposit you have paid or any discount for which you may be eligible. It does not include additional programme costs or any initial registration fee. If applicable, these are quoted separately above. Please note that students who have been nominated by their home university to apply to the University of Edinburgh as part of a reciprocal exchange programme (eg Erasmus) will not be liable for fee payment, although a fee amount may be shown above.

All amounts are quoted in pounds sterling.

For further information about fees please visit <https://www.ed.ac.uk/tuition-fees> or contact Fees and Student Support Team
email: fees@ed.ac.uk
tel: +44 (0)131 650 2230

The University welcomes early payment of fees. For more information about early payment and payment methods, please visit <http://www.ed.ac.uk/schools-departments/finance/students>.

Attendance date

The attendance date for your studies is shown in the offer. You must take up your place at the University no later than the attendance date specified. If you do not do so, the University reserves the right to withdraw the offer of a place.

Matriculation and payment of fees

You must matriculate at the start of your programme. You will be expected to pay your standard tuition fees and any additional programme costs for the year on first matriculation, and annually thereafter if your programme lasts more than one year.
